THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From THURSDAY June 4, to THURSDAY June 11, 1741.

BERLIN, March 11.

AN Officer of the Margrave Charles's Regiment arrived here Yeſterday Expreſs from the Camp before Glogau, with the News that the 8th Inſtant in the Night, that Town was taken by Storm, and that General Wallis with his Garriſon, conſiſting of between 8 and 900 Men were made Priſoners of War. The general Attack was made at one and the ſame Time at all the Gates of the Town, at 12 o'Clock at Night: The ſaid Gates having been broke down by the Grenadiers with their Axes, the Pruſſians got into the Town before the whole Garriſon could be under Arms. In this Action very few Men were killed; on the Side of the Pruſſians, they had 50 killed or wounded. Among the Auſtrians Major General Rasky was dangerouſly wounded.

Hamburgh, March 21. By our Letters from Stockholm, that Diet is now divided into two Parties, betwixt which great Debates are made; and even ſome things more have already happen'd. Baron Gyllenſtierna, Secretary to the Prime Miniſter, Count Gyllenberg, was ſecur'd in the Night between the 6th and 7th paſt, as he was returning home from the Ruſſian Embaſſador's; and they talk of a Diſcovery of Matters of the greateſt Importance.

Paris, March 20. Since the Exportation of Salt Beef has been prohibited in England, a Company at Marſeilles importing that Commodity from Barbary, has obtained a Grant from the King for tranſporting it to France for Sale.

Florence, March 4. A Detachment of the Spaniſh Garriſon of Orbitello, having made an Incurſion into the Dominion of this Grand Dutchy, in order to carry off ſome Cattle, but falling into the Hands of a Party of 300 German Huſſars, ſome of the former were killed, and the Reſt put to Flight.

Vienna, March 4. Some Letters from Hungary ſay, that the Turks ſeem to have a Mind to reſtore the Fortifications of Belgrade; its even ſaid that two Engineers are arriv'd there, in order to draw a Plan for executing that Deſign. The Court waits for a Confirmation of this Piece of News.

Vienna, March 15. On the 13th Inſtant in the Morning the Queen of Hungary was happily deliver'd of a Prince, to the unexpreſſible Joy of her Subjects. The ſame Morning the Prince of Hildburgſhauſen in the Name of the King of Poland, and the Cardinal Colonitz in the Name of the Pope, aſſiſted as Godfathers at the Chriſtening. After which the Grand Duke, in Quality of Sovereign of the Golden Fleece, created the young Prince a Knight of that Order.

Hanover, March 10. The Baron de Schwiegelt, Privy-Counſellor of War, is gone from hence to the King of Pruſſia, in order to execute, on the Part of the King of Great-Britain, an important Commiſſion, the Purport of which, it's believed is to reconcile the Courts of Vienna and Berlin; and People flatter themſelves that he will ſucceed in that Negociation.

Copenhagen, March 14. Count Cogorania, the Spaniſh Minister, received Orders about ſix Weeks ago to buy up ſome Ships for his Catholick Majeſty's Service; his Excellency has not a little beſtirr'd himſelf about the Affair, but as the Court has occaſion for all the Ships in the Ports of that Kingdom, the King of Spain is likely to have none them.

The neceſſary Orders are actually putting out for putting the Troops appointed for the Service of the King of Great-Britain into a marching Condition; and Preparations are making accordingly.

Turin, February 28. A few Days ago the King held a Grand Council with his Miniſters, in which a Reſolution taken to form a Camp of 12000 Men on the Frontiers of the Navarreze, and another of 14000 Men in the Tortoneze. Theſe Troops will advance into Lombardy in Caſe the Spaniards make any Attempts on that Side.

Peterſburgh, February 21. The Marquis de Botta, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Queen of Hungary, continues earneſtly to demand that the Court will cauſe a Body of Troops either to go directly to the Aſſiſtance of that Princeſs, or to make ſome Diverſion in her Favour. The Pruſſian Miniſter, on his Side, neglects nothing that may engage this Court not to break the Alliance which ſubſiſts between it and the King of Pruſſia.

We hear from Turky, that the Ambaſſador whom Schach Nadir ſends to the Grand Signior, is ſtill at Allepo, and no Body knows when he will proceed on his Journey to Conſtantinople; and that the Schach is aſſembling a great Army, and filling all the Magazines on the Frontiers of the Ottoman Empire.

Hanover, March 17. Every Thing is ready for the Reception of our Sovereign, who is expected here next Month or the Beginning of May at fartheſt. Several German Princes impatiently wait his Arrival, in order to concert Meaſures for reſtoring a good Harmony between the Courts of Vienna and Berlin, and prevent new Broils in the Empire. All the Officers have Orders to recall the Soldiers that have obtain'd Furlows. The new Recruits are exerciſed every Day.

Bruſſels, March 5. We hear from the Frontiers, that the French are preparing to take in Hand again the Works begun at the Canal of Gravelines: That the Bridge of Communication between the Batteries rais'd at Dunkirk is almoſt finiſhed; that this Bridge is broad enough for 12 Men to march a breaſt; and that the Batteries, which had receiv'd much Damage by the bad Weather, are entirely repair'd.

Dublin, March 7. From Cork by Yeſterday's Mail we are adviſed, that a Ship called the Supply, belonging to that Place, bound with Proviſions for Gibraltar, was lately taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into St. Sebaſtian's. She ſailed from Cork under Convoy of the Salisbury Man of War, but parted from her in a hard Gale of Wind. She had on board her 200 Tons of Meſs Beef, 100 of Pork, 500 Firkins of Butter, and 250 Boxes of Candles.

LONDON

LONDON, March 10. We hear that 112 Pieces of Artillery, beſides a large Magazine of Military Stores, are ordered to be got ready with all Expedition.

March 14. Yeſterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordſhips were pleaſed to put the Bedford Man of War, of 80 Guns, into Commiſſion, and gave the Command to Capt. James Cornwall, Member of Parliament for Weobly in Hertfordſhire.

They write from Venice, that a Dutch Man of War is put into Leghorn, which was bound with Corn for Lizbon, but being met with in her Paſſage by an Engliſh Man of War, ſhe was obliged to unload her Cargo at Mahon, where ſhe was paid for it, together with the Freight.

March 17. They write from Genoa, that Admiral Haddock has ſail'd from Port-Mahon with his Squadron, and left there only 3 Ships of the Line and a Frigat. It is to be hop'd therefore that the enterprizing Genius of a Britiſh Admiral will be at laſt ſeen in the Mediterranean, and that he is ſail'd on ſome real Action.

March 19. All the ſmall Ships of War, Bomb-Ketches and Tenders are tailed out of the Weſtern Ports, in order to board ſuch Ships as are expected Home on the Change of the Wind, and impreſs their Men, for the Service of the Fleet intended for the Channel.

March 26. They write from Venice, that Kouli Kan is ſending Ambaſſadors to Conſtantinople, to reclaim all the Dominions anciently belonging to Perſia.

We hear that the Reverend Mr. George Whitefield is appointed to appear before the Honourable the Houſe of Commons, to give an Account of the State of the Colony of Georgia.

March 28. They write from Cadiz, that there are now ſeven Men of War of Admiral Haddock's Squadron cruiſing before that Port, which ſearch every Veſſel that ſtirs out, and hinder thoſe bound for America from ſailing.

A curious Scheme is drawn up by ſome Merchants, and will ſhortly be preſented to Parliament, we hear, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more ſpeedily manning the Royal Navy; wherein among other Proviſo's, it is propoſed, that every trading Veſſel ſhall carry, according to her Burthen, from 1 to 500 Tons, a certain Number of Guns, Carriage and Swivel, of a fixed Weight of Shot, and proportionably of Marines, that are to aſſiſt in working the Ship, and conſequently made Seamen, to be maintained in Victualling by the Merchant, but paid by the Crown: The Difference in the Number of Sailors and Marines to be about Five to Four.

March 31. On Friday Night Brigadier Anſtruther, Governor of Minorca, arriv'd in Town from that Iſland; and on Sunday he waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, and was graciouſly received.

The Fleet from Cork with Proviſions for the Weſt-Indies were preparing to ſail the 15th.

London, April 2. On Saturday next Sir John Norris will hoiſt the Union Flag at the Main-Top-Maſt Head of his Majeſty's Ship the Victory, a firſt Rate of 110 Guns; which Ship, the bigged in the Navy, having been repair'd at Portſmouth, was hawl'd out of the Dock laſt Week, and is ſail'd to Spithead.

Yeſterday Admiral Cavendiſh ſet out for the ſame Place, to hoiſt his Flag on Board the St. George, a 90 Gun Ship; and we hear he is to command a Squadron for the Baltick.

Laſt Week died at his Seat in Somerſetſhire, the Right Honourable the Lord Berkley, one of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

April 8. This Day his Majeſty will go with the uſual State to the Houſe of Peers, in order to give the Royal Aſſent to ſeveral Bills, and make a Speech upon ſome very important Affairs, the neceſſary Orders being given for that Purpoſe.

April 9. The Induſtry, Cobb from Lynn for Oporto, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer and carried into Figueira. And a Spaniſh Privateer was taken by the Bonetta Man of War and carried into Oporto.

Yeſterday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, and gave the Royal Aſſent to ſuch Bills as were ready; after which his Majeſty made a moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 11.

By Capt. Pandarvis in 5 Days from Providence, we hear, that about 3 Weeks ago, a (large black Sloop) Spaniſh Privateer, came to Crooked-Iſland, (one of the Bahama's) and chas'd a Sloop which had juſt ſail'd from thence 'till ſhe got out of Sight, ſo that 'tis not known whether ſhe is taken or not; the next Day the Privateer return'd to the Iſland, and took a Sloop belonging to one Mr. Bullock, who was aſhore there with Eight Negroes, which Sloop the Spaniard carried off, and the Day after that, return'd for a Third Time, landed ſome Men in the Night, and carried off Mr. Bullock and Five of his Negroes, whilſt the other Three made their Eſcape to Providence and gave this Account.

On Wedneſday laſt Capt. Surrey, Capt. Bazely, Capt. Winter and Capt. Paske, (with Rice for the Uſe of the Fleet under Admirals Vernon and Ogle,) ſail'd for Jamaica, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Roſe, Capt. Thomas Frankland.
